RULES

1. EQUIPMENT - Each team will supply all of the equipment necessary for the preparation and cooking of their entry including a cooker, wood, charcoal, gas, or wood pellets. Teams may share a cooker or grill with another team.
2. MEAT INSPECTION - Prior to cooking, all meat that is resting in preparation for cooking must be covered at all times. All meats must be cooked to a minimum internal temperature of 145 degrees F. After cooking all meat must be maintained at a minimum temperature of 140 degrees F in a covered container until turned in for judging.
3. APPROVED COOKERS - Any cooker, homemade or commercially manufactured, will be allowed to compete.
4. CONTESTANT'S SITE - Each team will be assigned a 12' x 12' cook site. All equipment including cooker, canopy, etc. must be contained within this space. If additional space is required the team should contact the contest organizer and make satisfactory arrangements.
5. CLEANLINESS AND SANITATION - All teams are expected to maintain their cook sites in an orderly and clean manner and to use good sanitary practices during the preparation, cooking, and judging process. The use of sanitary gloves is required at all times while handling food. Failure to use sanitary gloves may result in disqualification. Teams are responsible for cleanup of their site once the competition has ended.
6. JUDGING - Entries will be submitted in provided approved containers, with NO garnish, or decorating of any kind. Only the entry to be judged is allowed in the container. Marking of any kind will disqualify the entry. Each entry will be judged on PRESENTATION, TASTE / FLAVOR, and TENDERNESS / TEXTURE. Meat may be sauced or unsauced. A minimum of 4 separate ribs must be submitted. Sides will be judged on PRESENTATION, TASTE / FLAVOR, and CREATIVITY.
7. JUDGING PROCEDURE - Ribs and side will be picked up by 1:45. He or she announces the number of the box to be judged, opens that box and checks for rules violations such as marking, insufficient number of samples, etc. Each judge then takes a sample and scores this box for taste and tenderness.
8. TURN IN TIMES - Pork Ribs: 1:45 p.m.
